In the matter of an application u/s 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act 1947.

PRESENT:

Shri L. P. Dave, B.A., LL.B.—Chairman.

PARTIES:

The General Secretary, Bombay Dock Workers Union, Bombay—Complainant.*Vs.*M/S. Dharsi Mulji, Contractors in the Port of Bombay—Respondents.

APPEARANCES:

Shri S. S. Kavalekar, Advocate, with Shri M. G. Kotwal, Secretary, Bombay Dock Workers Union, and Mr. P. D'Mello, General Secretary, Bombay Dock Workers Union—for Complainant.Shri J. C. Bhatt, Advocate, with Shri Dharsi Mulji—for the Respondents.

AWARD

This is an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act 1947.

2. An industrial dispute between Messrs. Dharsi Mulji and their bunder workers was referred for adjudication to this Tribunal on 29th September 1951 by Government of India, Ministry of Labour notification No. LR.3(170). The applicant filed the present application on 26th March 1952 alleging that one Shri Sidram Arjun Suryavanshi who was in the employment of the opposite party was wrongfully discharged by it under a false pretext in order to victimise him.

3. The opposite party denied that Sidram was a workman employed by them. They also denied that they had discharged him. They therefore urged that the application should be dismissed.

4. This application was fixed for hearing along with the main reference at Bombay. On 27th May 1953, the parties entered into a compromise in respect of both of the main reference and also the present application. Under the compromise relating to the present application, it was agreed that the present application was to be withdrawn and that Shri Sidram Arjun Suryavanshi and the Bombay Dock Workers Union (who had filed the present application) declared that Shri Sidram did not wish to be reinstated in service and that he had no claim of any nature whatsoever against Messrs. Dharsi Mulji. Messrs. Dharsi Mulji agreed to pay Rs. 1,500 as ex gratia payment to Shri Sidram. This compromise was signed by Shri Dharsi Mulji and his counsel and also by the General Secretary of the Bombay Dock Workers Union and their counsel. Shri Sidram Arjun Suryavanshi also put his thumb mark to the agreement which was explained to him by the President of the Bombay Dock Workers Union. He also admitted the terms of the compromise before me.

CENTRAL GOVERNMENT INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL AT DHANBAD

REFERENCE No. 29 OF 1951.

PRESENT:

Shri L. P. Dave, B.A., LL.B.—Chairman.

PARTIES:

Messrs. Dharsi Mulji, Contractors in the Port of Bombay.

AND

their bundar workers.

APPEARANCES:

Shri J. C. Bhatt, Advocate, with M/S. Matubhai Jamitram and Madan, Solicitors, and Shri Dharsi Mulji, for the management.

Shri S. S. Kavalekar, Advocate, with Shri M. Kotwal, Secretary, Bombay Dock Workers Union, and Mr. P. D'Mello, General Secretary, Bombay Dock Workers Union, for the workmen.

Shri B. Kulkarni, President, National Dock Workers' Union, and Shri Shirodkar, General Secretary of the National Dock Workers' Union, for the workmen.

AWARD

By Government of India, Ministry of Labour, notification No. LR.3(170), dated 29th September 1951, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Dharsi Mulji, Contractors in the Port of Bombay and their bundar workers in respect of matters specified in the schedule annexed thereto was referred for adjudication to this Tribunal.

2. Usual notices were issued to both parties, who filed their written statements. Before my predecessor could take up the matter, he retired from service and his service having thus ceased to be available, the Government of India, by notification No. LR.2(395), dated 4th February 1953, referred the matter for adjudication to me. Notices were issued to the parties and the date of hearing was fixed at Bombay on 19th May 1953. On that day, a preliminary question arose whether the National Dock Workers Union should be allowed to appear in this case. The reference in this case was made at the instance of the Bombay Dock Workers' Union. It was conceded before me by all parties that each union had at least some workers as their members. I therefore ordered that both Unions should be allowed to represent the workers in this case. All the parties then requested me that I should make local inspection of the working places at Haji and Hay bunders and also at docks of the Bombay Port Trust. Accordingly in the presence of the representatives of the management and the two unions, I inspected Haji and Hay bunders on the very day and the Bombay Port Trust in the morning of 20th May 1953. On that day (20th May 1953), Shri Kotwal on behalf of the Bombay Dock Workers' Union opened the case and explained his contentions to me in detail. On 21st May 1953 Shri Kulkarni on behalf of the National Dock Workers Union produced a memorandum of agreement arrived at between his union and the management. One of the terms of this agreement was that the present reference should be withdrawn. This agreement was disputed by Shri Kotwal on behalf of the Bombay Dock Workers Union. The leaders of both unions contended that their respective unions commanded a majority of the workmen. Both of them therefore were directed to produce lists of their memberships with evidence in support thereof. The management was also asked to produce a list of the workmen doing their work. On the next day (i.e. on 22nd May 1953), lists were produced by the management and the two unions. A discussion then took place about the validity of the agreement to withdraw the reference and about its binding on all workers. Ultimately all the parties filed a memorandum of agreement before me, stating that if 71½ per cent. of the workmen voted in favour of the withdrawal, the reference should be treated as withdrawn. A list of workmen who were entitled to vote was also produced along with this memorandum of agreement. It was further agreed that the voting was to take place the next day that is on 23rd May 1953 between 11-30 A.M. and 3 P.M. Accordingly on 23rd May 1953, I recorded the votes of the workmen who appeared before me and it was found that the workmen who voted for withdrawal of reference were just less than 70 per cent. In the result, it was ordered that the reference should proceed.

3. Thereupon the Bombay Dock Workers Union began to lead its evidence. The evidence of Shri Kotwal was recorded that day. Further hearing was adjourned to 25th May 1953 when Shri Kotwal was cross-examined and one other witness on behalf of the Bombay Dock Workers Union was examined. On 26th May 1953, further evidence was recorded. The Bombay Dock Workers Union closed their case. The National Dock Workers Union stated that they did not want to examine any witnesses. Two witnesses were then examined on behalf of the management and the matter was adjourned to the next day. On 27th May 1953, the parties filed a memorandum of agreement arrived at between them. It was signed by the management, and their counsel and also by the President and Secretary of the Bombay Dock Workers Union and their counsel. The General Secretary of the National Dock Workers Union had also signed this agreement. A copy of the agreement is annexed to this award. I have gone through the terms thereof and I find that the terms are reasonable. Shri Kulkarni, the President of the National Dock Workers Union was not present on that day and the matter was therefore adjourned to the next day, on which date he appeared before me and signed it and admitted the terms of compromise. As I said above, the terms appear to me to be reasonable. All the parties requested me that an award should be passed in terms of the compromise. As parties have entered into a memorandum of agreement, and as I am satisfied that the terms thereof are reasonable, I pass an award in terms of the agreement (copy of which is attached herewith).

The 10th June 1953.

CENTRAL GOVERNMENT INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL AT DHANBAD

APPLICATION No. 62 OF 1952.

(ARISING OUT OF REFERENCE NO. 6 OF 1952)

In the matter of an application U/S 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act 1947.

PRESENT:

Shri L. P. Dave, B.A., LL.B.—Chairman.

PARTIES:

Shri F. Jha and eight other workmen of West Bokaro Colliery—Applicants.
Vs.

Deputy Agent, West Bokaro Colliery—Opposite Party.

APPEARANCES:

Shri N. V. Desai, General Secretary, Koyala Muzdoor Panchayat, for the Applicants.

Shri J. Frasad, for the Opposite Party.

AWARD

This is an application purporting to be one under Section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act 1947.

2. A reference being Reference No. 6 of 1952 is pending before this Tribunal between the 1078 collieries mentioned therein and their workmen. The West Bokaro Colliery is one of these collieries. It appears that the management thereof suspended the nine persons who have made this present application. The applicants thereupon filed an application No. 52 of 1952 before this Tribunal under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act 1947, alleging that their discharge was not proper etc. Later on, they sent the present application by post on 5th December 1952 mentioning the same facts as before, and requested that this Tribunal should take action against the management for contravention of the Industrial Disputes Act 1947 and should proceed with the case under section 33A of the Act. In my opinion, this application should not have been separately numbered. It was only a reminder or a request to the Tribunal to take up the application No. 52 of 1952 at an early date. If it is taken to mean that this application was made for taking criminal action against the management, it was an application which was not maintainable. Shri Desai who appeared for the applicants fairly conceded that this application was not maintainable and should be dismissed. I agree with him.

In the result, I hold that the present application is not maintainable and order that it should be dismissed and pass my award accordingly.

CENTRAL GOVERNMENT INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL AT DHANBAD.

APPLICATION No. 30 OF 1953

(ARISING OUT OF REFERENCE No. 6 OF 1952.)

In the matter of an application U/S 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act 1947.

PRESENT:

Shri L. P. Dave, B.A., LL.B.—Chairman.

PARTIES:

Shri Prakriti Bhusan Gupta, President, Indian Government Railway Collieries Employees Association—Complainant.

Vs.

The Chief Mining Engineer, Railway Board, Calcutta.—Opposite Party.

APPEARANCES:

Dr. Prakriti Bhusan Gupta, for the Complainant.

Shri S. N. Sahgal, Coal Superintendent, for the Opposite Party.

AWARD.

This is an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act 1947.

2. The application was filed by Dr. Gupta as the President of the Indian Government Railway Collieries Employees Association, alleging that the opposite party began to realise house rent from the employees appointed on and after 1st June 1944; that no house rent was charged before; that by doing so, the opposite party was guilty of a contravention of the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act 1947, because Reference No. 6 of 1952 is pending to which the opposite party and its workmen are parties. Later on, Dr. Gupta filed an authority from several workmen to appear in this matter.

3. The opposite party urged that the application was not legally maintainable and denied that it had contravened the provisions of Section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act 1947.

4. At the hearing, Dr. Gupta withdrew the application, stating that the opposite party had waived the realisation of house rent upto 30th April 1953. The present application was made on 19th March 1953 and as the house rent upto (and even beyond) that date has been waived, the application did not survive. He therefore withdrew it.

In the result, the application is dismissed and I pass my award accordingly.
